

YONAGUNI ISLAND

Yonaguni is Japan's most exhilarating dive destination. Customize your own trip or choose from two sample itineraries: The Yonaguni Dive Tour visits Yonaguni and Okinawa while the Yonaguni Monuments Expedition visits three destinations: Explore Naha, Okinawa Island's bustling capital city. Dive and kayak the Kerama Islands chain and delve into the mystery of Japan's ancient underwater 'lost city'. Yonaguni is also home to wild roaming horses, dense jungle and three awamori (Okinawan liquor) factories.

Yonaguni Dive Tour: 9 Days
Destinations: Okinawa, Yonaguni
Boat Dives: 10

Yonaguni Monuments Expedition: 11 Days
Destinations: Okinawa, Zamami & Yonaguni
Boat Dives: 16
Group Departures: May & October

Sample Itinerary: Yonaguni Monuments Expedition

Days 1 & 2: Leave country of origin and arrive in Japan on day two. Clear customs and board the connecting flight to Naha, Okinawa's capital. Stay for one night at a luxury hotel located in the heart of the city center. Catch some great nightlife and experience the Okinawan culture.

Day 3: A 45-minute boat ride brings you to the dive resort at lush green, subtropical Zamami Island. After lunch, enjoy your first few boat dives and then settle in for a three-night stay.

Accommodations are quaint, comfortable and moments away from white sandy beaches.

Day 4: Three more boat dives. Other sports such as fishing, kayaking, windsurfing and hiking are also available.

Day 5: Gear up for two more boat dives after breakfast. Spend the afternoon touring the island. The locals are very friendly and the village is small enough to navigate easily. Weather permitting your hosts will throw a farewell BBQ at sunset before departing the following day.

OPEN COAST

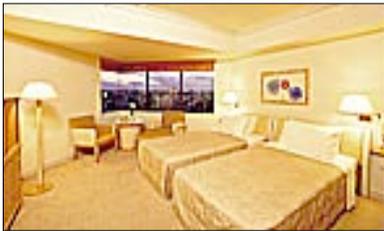

Day 6: Snap off some final shots of the Kerama Islands and board the Queen Zamami. After lunch in Naha, fly to Yonaguni Island where you'll be taken to the hotel, check in for four nights. Enjoy breakfast, lunch & dinner at the hotel, which offers some of the best food on the island.

Day 7: Dive the Yonaguni Stone Monuments at Iseki Point, The Stage, The Stadium and more.

Day 8: Continue with exploratory dives at Yonaguni's lost city. Dive with schooling hammerheads at Hammer Point or the surrounding coral encrusted caves and caverns. Other sports such as sailing, deep sea fishing and kayaking are available. A sunset cruise is the perfect way to end the day.

Day 9: Enjoy two more dives and spend the afternoon touring Yonaguni's topside. Visit the local awamori factories and sample the liquor. Stand at Japan's most westerly tip and see Yonaguni san, one of the world's largest moths. Cruise the scenic coastline, check out the local Yonaguni horses and take a tour of Sonai village.

Day 10: After returning to Naha, enjoy a one-night stay at a luxury hotel located in the city center. Explore Okinawa's ancient castles and villages. Visit Naha's main shopping district and indulge in the local cuisine.

Day 11: Return to point of origin or continue on one of our optional tours to either Tokyo or Kyoto.

MAY HIGHLIGHTS: Experience the Sanja Festival, one of Tokyo's largest and most exciting. With the streets closed, hundreds of portable shrines are paraded through town carried on the shoulders of locals in ceremonial garb. The sumo tournament is also held in May.

OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS: Take part in Okinawa's biggest festival, the Tug O' War – a day when the capital city Naha, closes for a huge party. Watch thousands of locals challenge each other in a contest of strength using a forty-ton rope! Also snorkel and dive with huge pacific manta rays making their seasonal visit.

Yonaguni Dive Tour Package Includes: Nine days, seven nights accommodation • Transfers on Yonaguni • Breakfast, lunch and dinner daily • 10 boat dives • Tanks & weights • Hotel taxes, tips & surcharges • Departure information portfolio •

- Package price per person double occupancy: $1395.
- Accommodations: Western or Japanese style rooms, en-suite bathroom, T.V., refrigerator, A.C.
- The Yonaguni Dive Tour is a sample itinerary, contact us for more information about the Yonaguni Monuments Expedition or for a customized trip price.
- Flights available.